

S. H. COWELL FOUNDATION ELECTS NEW BOARD MEMBER

The S. H. Cowell Foundation is pleased to announce that Charles E. Ellwein has been elected to the Board of Directors.

Mr. Ellwein grew up in San Diego, California and Omaha, Nebraska. He graduated from Stanford's Graduate School of Business where he was an Arjay Miller Scholar and was awarded the Alexander A. Robichek achievement award in Finance. He did his undergraduate work at Brown University where he received a Sc.B. with Honors in Electrical Engineering. In 2006, Mr. Ellwein joined the Capital Research Global Investors Group as an equity investment analyst. Prior to joining Capital Group, he was a partner at Farallon Capital Management. Farallon manages equity capital; its institutional investors are primarily college endowments and foundations. Prior to joining Farallon, Mr. Ellwein worked at Black Rock Financial Management where he specialized in structuring investment portfolios for financial institutions and pension funds.

Mr. Ellwein is personally committed to philanthropy and community service. He has given significant support to the San Francisco Boys and Girls Club and Teach for America. He and his wife Nel live in San Francisco and have two daughters.

The S. H. Cowell Foundation invests $11.6 million annually in low-income Northern California communities by supporting family resource centers, K-12 education, youth development, the development of affordable homes and leadership development. Visit www.shcowell.org for more information on the Foundation.

Contact Person: Ms. Maggie Son
Ph: (415) 397-0285
Fx: (415) 986-6786
Email: son@shcowell.org

Date: January 21, 2008

#